PERFUMER SINCE 1747.

Jean de Galimard lived in Grasse in 1747 where he created the Galimard House of Perfumes. Founder of the corporation of Glovemakers and Perfumers, Jean supplied the court of Louis XIV, the well-beloved, King of France, with olive oil, pomades, and perfumes of which he developed the first formulas. Since perfume was used to scent the fashionable gloves, the industries literally grew together hand in hand.

For over 275 years, the Galimard House of Perfumes has been following the same traditions as its renowned founder and currently uses the same processes that made its name famous.

A TRADITIONAL SAVOIR-FAIRE

Remaining entirely family-owned and operated with respect for tradition, Galimard infuses its love for Perfume into every moment, perfecting this Art by cultivating novelty and sublimating this eternal source of creation.

Galimard's value proposition is a blend of historical significance, commitment to quality, exclusivity, a rich sensory experience, and a balance between local heritage and a global appeal, making it a distinguished name in the world of luxury perfumes.

Galimard is one of the first French Houses of Perfumes. Only the use of traditional methods can guarantee the incomparable fine quality of the materials.

The Galimard House of Perfumes has been inspired by a true passion for their Art.
